Scouts, Guides and Explorers Camp The Netherlands in August 2012

Summer Camp for the Scouts, Guides and Explorers in 2012, will be in The Netherlands. This will be followed by a week in hospitality with our Dutch hosts in The Hague.

The dates of the fortnight are determined by the Dutch. The camp will be from Saturday 4th August to 11th August and Hospitality Week will be 11th August to Saturday 18th August.

As the A level results will be released while we are at camp, arrangements are being made for the older Explorers to have access to telephones and the internet for UCAS clearing. Any concerned parents should contact the section leaders.

Costs

We are not able to confirm many details at this stage due to some significant unknown factors. These are namely the number of children going, which has a large influence on costs of flights or ferries etc., transport of equipment and the cost of the camp and activities in Holland. At this stage the estimated cost of camp is in the region of £450 but as you obviously appreciate in the present climate this may change.

For further planning we need to know how many Scouts, Guides and Explorers will be making the trip. If your son/daughter will be going on the Holland Trip please can you return the slip below, with a £50 non-returnable deposit by Friday 2nd December, at the latest, to your child's section leader.

Payment

Cheques should be made payable to:

Ben Rhydding Scout & Guide Group

The final payment will be due in the Spring and we will let you know all costs and payment dates very soon after the deposit cut off date.

Parents' Meeting

We will be holding a meeting for the parents of those going to Holland in the early part of next year.
